News from your President

Hi Everyone,

What a wonderful summer we have had and it is zooming by us. I hope everyone has had wonderful vacations and some painting time.

We tried out our “in-house” retreat this year and there was not much participation. I hope the low participation was due to vacations. Anyway, we had a lot of fun with those that participated and everything turned out great!

I think I got the note out to everyone, and we will talk about it at the meeting, but we are switching the date of the Trout Lodge Retreat to March 27th to the 29th of 2015. The rates will be less expensive due to the Spring. I will be talking about this at the meeting. If anyone would like to submit projects to be voted on, please bring them to the November meeting at which time we will be voting on them.

You also received an e/mail, or mailing, of an email asking for members to run for board. We are losing a big chunk of our board this year and would like to see some new faces. Think about it, as we will be voting on those in the November meeting also. Being on the Board opens your eyes to a lot of behind the scene business and getting up close with the members.

Don't forget to make the September meeting. We are having our 40th Anniversary Party that Barb and her helpers have been hard at work with. I think it will be an awesome time! Cant wait to see you there.

Gateway Decorative Artists
Donna Wessel, Treasurer
9765 Lily Jean Dr
St. Louis, MO 63134

Dear Gateway Decorative Artists,

On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of The Society of Decorative Painters, I want to thank you for supporting the Society with your recent donation.

The response to the Board's Jewel Program has been overwhelming. In addition to giving donations, members have been recruiting new members, purchasing merchandise on the website, enrolling for Conference, and expressing their patronage in many other ways. Chapters have offered challenges to each other. Individuals have created fundraisers. We are deeply touched by this outpouring of loyal support.

We have always known that our members are special and we are so grateful that SDP plays a vital role in our members' lives. Your generosity is appreciated so very much, as is the expression of dedication that it represents.

The Society's Jewel Program was designed to acknowledge and thank those who have given financial support to SDP. Your donation of $100.00 places you at the Sapphire giving level on 3/14/2014.

Sapphire: $100-249 Donation—A listing in issue 2, 2015, of The Decorative Painter; an SDP Jewel cloisonné pin and one-time 10% discount on SDP Boutique merchandise (if donor is a Chapter, a one-time, 10% discount on chapter service charms will apply.) Your SDP cloisonné Jewel crown is enclosed.

Thank you again for your support and generosity and for being a cherished member of our painting family. We are looking forward to seeing you at our annual conference being held in Chicago, IL, May 11-16, 2015.

Warmest regards,

Patricia A Marler
President / Executive Director
Society of Decorative Painters

The SDP Jewel Program runs from January 1, 2014 to December 31, 2014.

News from our Program Chair Barb Ogden

It is hard to believe that school has started and fall is just around the corner. Although from the temperature you sure would not know it!

Hope you are all planning to attend our 40th Anniversary Party/Meeting. There is some great food and lots of surprises planned. The program after the meeting is painting a Gateway Louie/Louise bookmark. This is a simple project and will go quickly....

If you are registered for the Sherry Nelson seminar I hope you are getting your surfaces ready. As a registered attendee you will be receiving several reminder emails from me in preparation for the weekend. I am looking forward to getting back to my painting roots...oils.

We will be voting on projects for next years seminars with Cheri Rol and Bobbie Campbell. Stop by the Seminar Table to vote for your favorites if you are planning on attending either one. I am also looking for projects for next years meetings. Please let me know if you have something you would like to teach after our regular business meetings.

We are also in the planning stages of our Christmas Party. There will be more info to come on place and cost.

See you Sunday, September 14. Barb

After Meeting Paint—In Bookmark

The cost to members will be @1.00 and they need to bring a stylus, dry brush, a permanent marker, palette paper and graphite.

BIRTHDAY WISHES!

Meeting Minutes of June 8, 2014

Lorie Reece called the meeting to order at 1:00 p.m. All board members were in attendance with the exception of Sandra Reynolds. The invocation was given by Jeanne Abraham. Lorie welcomed all members and guests.

Lorie asked if there were any corrections to the April minutes as printed in the Newsletter. Hearing no comments, the minutes were approved. Lorie asked if there were any questions regarding the Treasurer's Report. Hearing no questions, the Treasurer's Report will be filed.

Barb Ogden thanked all those that participated in Mark's Seminar. The Sherry Nelson Seminar in September still has openings. It will be held at the Staybridge in O'Fallon. Barb has offered to cut masonite for anyone needing a surface, but has only received one request so far. Barb has contacted several teachers for 2015 Seminars. Next Saturday is Lorie Reece's Sharing Workshop. September is our 40th Anniversary. Barb would like to have a short meeting today before the paint-in with those who volunteered to help. Gloria will be teaching a Hummingbird on a wine glass after the meeting.

Cheryll Wilburn advised that we have 25 members present today. We also have four guests: Loretta Trower, Jackie Kohler, Nancy Black and Diana Gelbert. Gifts were given out to our visitors. One of our guests, Jackie Kohler, joined Gateway today. Welcome, Jackie! Attendance prizes were won by: Anna Mathieu, Jean Lindsey, Barb Ogden, Donna Wessel, Liz McClintock, Mary Jo Kumer and Marilyn Harnett. We have some free books, patterns, etc. for anyone interested. Let Cheryll know if you hear of any illnesses or deaths. Linda Nelson's husband is out of the hospital.

Gloria Falk gave a report on the Ways and Means Committee's last paint in. Sandy Aubuchon had a class yesterday on painting scarves. Joyce Miller mentioned that her church group, in Cedar Hill, would love to have a class on scarf painting.

Donna Wessel passed out copies of the Treasurer's Report to several people that did not receive the Newsletter. She mentioned that Josee just got a new computer and is working on getting things up to date. Donna thanked everyone that participated in the auction at our last meeting. We collected $149.00, which will go to the Memory Box Program.

Mary Jo Kumer advised that Marilyn Todd taught the June Memory Box paint-in at the bank. Mary Jo will teach the July paint-in and it will be a Maureen McNaughton pattern. This is from Issue 1 of the 2014 Decorative Painter. If you have that issue, it will be helpful if you bring it with you to the paint-in. In June, we did 18 Memory Boxes. So far, this year, we have shipped 214 Memory Boxes. Donna Wessel will teach the August paint-in. We still need volunteers for the October and December paint-ins. If anyone would like boxes to paint at home, let Mary Jo or Gloria Falk know and they will bring them to the meeting.

There were no paintings brought in for Show & Tell. However, the beautiful scarves that were painted with Sandy and worn by members were shown. Debbie Finklang gave a report on the Retreat classes. We have four coming up this month and two next month. You can sign up today for these classes.

Lorie mentioned that if we do not have enough people sign up for these Retreat classes to pay for rooms at the Holiday Inn Express, we could hold them at Quality Testing. An e-mail will be sent to all those that sign up for a class to let them know of the location.

Volunteers for the November refreshments were: Nancy Falk, Mary Jo Kumer (Sodas), Michelle Senn, Joyce Miller and Anna Mathieu. Gloria Falk did the table decorations for today's meeting. Gloria will also be teaching the Hummingbird wine glass painting after the meeting.

Mary Jo Kumer made a motion to adjourn the meeting and this was seconded by Joan Love. The meeting adjourned at 1:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Jean Rogenhofer

THOUGHTS FOR GOLD BRUSH NOMINATIONS

Did you know?

You, the individual chapter member, are the ignition switch that initiates the annual Gold Brush process. You play a very key role that culminates in December at the Christmas Party when the next Gold Brush Award recipient is announced. Your decision to write a name on the Gold Brush Nomination Form should be given as much careful thought and consideration as that of the committee whose solemn duty and responsibility it is to evaluate that nominee.

Just how well do you know the person you are thinking of nominating when it comes to their service to the chapter? Do you know how long they have been a chapter member? Do you know if they have ever served on the board – in what positions, for how long, how many times? Have they chaired or served on any committees? How often do they attend chapter meetings, support seminars, or workshops? Do you see them helping to set up for events/activities? Do you see them staying behind to help clean up after a function? Do they regularly volunteer to teach a workshop, retreat class, paint-in project, make-it-take-it? Do they support our chapter charities? Would you consider them a “mover and a shaker”? Do they stand out as a doer and a team player? Are they a leader – someone you can admire and respect? Are they a positive promoter of Gateway Decorative Artists? Do they have a positive and supportive attitude toward the SDP? Do they support the National Museum of Decorative Painting? How many check marks can you put in their plus column? If the answer is many, you are probably on the right track.

Do you know how or from whom to obtain any of the above information you need in order to make an informed decision? Did you know that the Membership Chair keeps a card file on every current, active chapter member that lists a lot of the above information? A simple phone call could answer any questions you might have. Another source would be to talk to other members who have served in the same board position, or committees as your proposed nominee. You have a number of alternative methods of accessing as well as assessing the chapter service and character traits of your candidate. I urge you to avail yourself of them before writing a name on the Gold Brush Nomination Form.

The Gold Brush Award is the highest honor that the chapter can bestow upon a member. It is a once in a lifetime award. Therefore, in order to preserve the integrity and prestige associated with the award, it is important that only the most worthy and deserving member ultimately be chosen. When the next Gold Brush Award recipient is announced, those in attendance should be able to conclude unanimously that the goal has been fulfilled.

Cheryll Wilburn
Gold Brush Chair

GOLD BRUSH AWARD

Gold Brush Nomination Process:

To nominate someone for this high honor, fill out the form below.

The Committee will research your nominee’s qualifications based on information you and others give us. If you know of a specific service your nominee has performed, please state it briefly. If more information is needed a Committee member will contact you.

Please be conscientious in your choice and remember that this is not a popularity contest. A nomination box will be set up at the September and November meeting with extra forms available. Please place your signed form into a sealed envelope and MARK IT GOLD-BRUSH, and either drop it in the Gold Brush Award box, or mail to:
