After meeting paint-in for September — See information on Page 6 for instructions, cost and supplies.

News from your President....

I hope every one of you have had a wonderful summer. It's nice to have a little break from the heat. I am NOT ready for winter yet, but I am looking forward to some cooler temperatures.

The month of September brings some cool things for us to take advantage of: Barb has Sandy Aubuchon scheduled to teach at the next meeting- a beautiful lighted ornament. What a great opportunity to get an early start on those Christmas ornaments you will need for those special people in your life this year.

Then there is retreat at Todd Hall this year. Ellen has really been working on making this a fun retreat. What a great time we have at our Retreats...kick back, no meals to cook, no children-or grandchildren that has to be transported here or there, I could go on and on <SMILE>. This is the time to take for yourself....a time for you to get to know other members of our chapter in a smaller setting. We don't nearly have enough time to catch up with each other at meetings. If you haven't done so already, be sure to sign up for RETREAT this year. There are some great projects to choose from, and a great time being planned. September will be your last chance to sign up.

Another painting opportunity for you is being held at the Lindell Bank in St. Peters, at our Memory Box paint-in on the 13th, start time is usually 9-9:15. Ingrid Oertli and Liz Colvin will be teaching a texture paste design on a memory box that day. Look for more information on that event in this newsletter. You have to let us know if you're planning on attending, as they have done some prep work and they don't want to be caught short of memory boxes. Bring a snack for yourself, as this project might take us a little longer to do that day.

Be sure to bring the projects you have been busy with this summer to share with us - we love to see what everybody has been working on. Teachers....if you have classes coming up, be sure to share that also. Members...if you're wanting to paint regularly, make that announcement maybe you could get a group started to paint together and enjoy this art form. I have a group of friends that get together every Wednesday to paint on our various projects. We have a great time together, we laugh, and we cry, we pray, we eat and we paint!! Sometimes, we are just off beat for the day and we play cards or games-sigh!! One member wants us to at least paint a little before pulling out the games/cards, though. I won't mention any names. Giggle. Take a chance and start one of your own little painting sessions, or get in touch with our teachers that teach classes regularly, (Barb, Ellen, Debbie???). You could be missing out on a lot of fun and a creative good time. Our meeting venue is a perfect place to make that connection.

Ok signing off for now, hope to see you all at the September meeting.

Always Paint with a Happy Heart. Gloria

A PIRATES BOOTIE

Take a break from it all. Join us September 23-25

The time for Retreat is fast approaching. Our teachers and committee members have been working very hard all summer to get everything ready for a fun filled weekend.

Besides having 4 classes and three Make-It-Take-Its to choose from, we will have time to paint Memory Boxes as well. Attendance prizes will be given out on Saturday night, following the MITIs.

Because this is a small group you really have the opportunity to get to know our chapter members.

Don't miss out on the chance to get away for the weekend and make new friends who share your interest in painting. Come and paint with a new or a favorite teacher.

We still have room in many of the classes and a few sleeping rooms left, so I have sent invites to some of the other chapters to join us.

The last day to register is at the September meeting. Join us for a weekend away from it all, no cooking involved.

PROGRAM — BARB OGDEN

Where has the summer gone? Dave Murray is going to give the Fall forecast next Tuesday and I feel like I just put the Easter decorations away! Just a couple of things to report.

Remember the meeting will be held at the Maryland Heights Community Center in Room #1. We will be painting with Sandy Aubuchon, the beautiful lighted Christmas ornament pictured on first page of this newsletter. If you decide you would like to paint and have not registered please let me know so I can communicate with Sandy.

I am still in the planning stages for a 2017 Seminar and hope to have more information at the November meeting. Also, I am still looking for anyone to teach a Sharing Workshop next year.

Hope to see you all September 11, Barb

The next MB paint-in occurs AFTER our Sept. meeting, so mark your calendar's Sept. 13 at Lindell Bank, 9 a.m.

Here is the design that Liz and Ingrid are going to teach at the Sept. 13 MB paint in. It will be done on a dark navy blue, with silver edges. Ingrid brought the red one to the paint in today and it was really very pretty.

If you plan to attend you will need to have:

- a #3 round brush with a very nice point (note: if you have the Athena's Gold stroke Round brushes - the #3 is perfect for this technique)...brush that is able to flatten to a chisel edge.
- a flat brush for clean up (and she says believe her, there will be cleanup to do). <SMILE>
- a Wilton coupler and a#1 cake decorating tip size 1, along with a Wilton disposable decorating bag. Available at Michaels or Joann's.
- Modeling paste
- Flow Medium
- Rubber band to seal bag
- White Chalk Pencil
- Water Basin
- Medium to small flat to wipe up mistakes
- Paper towels
- Deli container with lid (1 pound size) to store bag when not in use

ON THE OTHER HAND.....

If you don't have the coupler, tip and bag - Ingrid has done some shopping and she is willing to bring these to sell. The cost would be $3. You will need to let me or her know if you want to get the supplies from her.

They are furnishing the texture paste to work the design up with.

Here is a good opportunity to learn to work with the texture paste with two very talented ladies.

MINUTES — ANNA MATHIEU

Gateway Decorative Artists General Meeting

June 12, 2016

The meeting was called to order at 1:00 pm.

Board members attending the meeting: Gloria Falk, Ellen Rohne, Jean Lindsey, Donna Wessel, Anna Mathieu and Marilyn Hartnett.

Jeanne Abraham gave the Invocation.

President-Gloria Falk:

Gloria welcomed everyone at the meeting.

Since the meeting minutes were printed in the newsletter and were not read aloud, Gloria asked if there were any changes or corrections to the minutes. No corrections or changes were made, so they were approved as printed.

The Treasurer's report was also printed in the newsletter. Gloria asked if there were any questions about the report. Hearing no questions, the Treasurer's Report was filed.

Gloria asked if anyone had attended the national convention and no one in attendance had attended this year. Next year the convention will be held in Daytona Beach, FL on May 17-20, 2017.

Gloria brought a copy of the new decorative painting magazine for members to look at after the meeting.

Vice President-Ellen Rohne:

Retreat information:

Ellen gave a description of the grounds and amenities at Todd Hall.

Ellen was taking reservations for the event, and collecting fees for classes. Make checks out to GDA.

Program Chair-Barb Ogden:

The program planned for the day is a Trunk show with wood products for sale. There will also be books for sale.

Future meetings may be taking place in this building, The Checkerboard Cottage. Construction continues on the Maryland Heights Rec. Center and it will be a while before it is completed.

The September meeting painting project will be a Sandy Aubuchon Christmas Ornament. The cost will be $15.00 for each ornament.

Barb is inquiring about teachers for seminars and workshops next year, and there are teaching opportunities for local teachers for Sharing Classes the 2017 year.

Show n' Tell today: Deb Christenson brought a colored pencil piece done on a black background. Joan Reilly brought a picture of a dog done in oils. Barb Ogden brought three pieces – Flowers on a box, and two pencil sketches of dogs.

Memory Box Program-Mary Jo Kumer

Gloria reported that there were 34 memory boxes sent out. Barb Ogden will teach the next memory box on July 12. It will be a baby shoe with a bear. Donna Wessel will teach the August memory box class. Ingrid Oertli will teach the September 13 class. It will be a "Mudding" project.

Newsletter Editor-Marilyn Hartnett

The Newsletter deadline is August 25, 2016.

Membership Chairman-Jean Lindsey

Jean introduced 3 guests today Tina and Susan and Kay Baranowski, a former member.

Jean reported that we have 41 members at this time. We have 21 members attending the meeting and 3 guests.

Door prizes donated today by Sandy Aubuchon, Liz McClintock, and Linda Nelson.

Door prizes were won by Nancy Falk, Donna Wessel, Gloria Falk, and Ellen Rohne.

The pin exchange last year was a big success. We will do it again this year. This year we will draw names and pins will be made with a Christmas theme. They will be due at the November meeting. Those interested should meet after the meeting to participate and exchange names.

Secret Pal gifts were placed at the attendance table and distributed with Show n' Tell afterwards.

Treasurer-Donna Wessel

The Treasurer's report was published in the newsletter and filed.

Donna reported that she still had patches for sale and other donated items for sale/free.

Refreshment Chairs-Linda Nelson and Liz McClintock

Liz thanked all the people that brought food today to create a big salad, and all who helped in setting up the table

Refreshments were provided by Nancy Falk, Debbi Christenson, Mary Jo Kumer, Lovella Mauer, Barb Ogden, Joan Reilly, Carol Rufkahr, and Marilyn Todd. The shoes were donated from Marsh Nieling/Mary Quiroz and the flower arrangements were also donated.

Volunteers are needed for the next meeting. The theme is Apple Pick'n Good Time.

Other old Business:

Kay Baranowski reported on the past SDP convention. She said there were about 437 people attending with about 15 people per class. On the election of board members, there was only one person for each board position. She added that the trade show was small this year.

New Business:

There was no new business to be discussed.

Business concluded. Donna Wessel made a motion to adjourn, and Marilyn Hartnett seconded the motion.

Meeting adjourned at 1:44 pm.

Respectfully submitted by Anna Mathieu, Recording Secretary

TURNING POINT

The shelter really has a need for paper towels for bathrooms and kitchens. Also needed are newborn diaper and size one diapers, shampoo, conditioner, and also dish detergent. Everything is appreciated.

There is always a need for staples like:

Toilet paper and paper towels

Hygiene products like:

Toothpaste and toothbrushes

Shampoo and conditioners

Ellen, the Director of Turning Point has also indicated that it would be helpful to have:

Cake mixes, icing and decorations, to help celebrate birthdays.

Clear Storage tubs, all sizes to organize their donations

Reams of Copy paper

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me, Cheryll Wilburn, at 314-640-8759.

PET RESCUE WISH LIST

Small Pet Beds Litter Pet Toys Monetary Donations

Rescues often require cats and dogs to be disease tested prior to leaving the shelter so they could also use monetary donations or sponsors for that. Each test is from $15-24 dollars but this adds up fast with multiple transfers.

Spring has arrived and new puppies and kittens are popping up all over the place. This rescue group does what they can through the many volunteers to supply the needs to help out God's creatures. Can we try once again to bring at least ONE of the items listed above to the next meeting? We could really make an impact on their wish list. They ask that these items be new, or barely used and clean.
